World Book Day Celebrations

Last week we celebrated World Book Day. All the staff surprised children by dressing up as different characters to help get the children talking about books and developing discussions about their characters.

Mr Drury did an amazing assembly about Jeremy Strong and Jake in Year 1 told everyone his favourite book is 'Peck, Peck, Peck' by Lucy Cousins because 'He pecks everything'.

On Thursday afternoon all the children heard a story being read by a different teacher-Year 5 went back down to the Year 1 classes to hear stories read by the Year 1 teachers- 'Ratburger' by David Walliams and 'Stories From Around the World'. Mrs Lewis really convinced Anansi Class that she was Jack Sparrow!!!

It was a really fun afternoon and inspired a love of reading for all! Well done everyone. MRS COTON
