World Book Day 2025

We will be dressing up this year for World Book Day 2025 on Friday 7th March. This will be a no school uniform day and children are invited to dress up as their favourite book characters. We look forward to a great day of fun.

Forest School Fun

Year 1 just love forest school. Last week they had a go at stick whittling and made cakes and soup for wild things. They even discovered wild thing foot prints! This time of year is good for many things and nice soggy mud cakes is definitely one

Year 6 Dig for Victory

Year 6 have had so much fun watching Goodnight Mister Tom at the BFI on the South Bank as well as lots of short films about WW2. The children even got a chance on the mic to give some impressive answers to some very tricky questions. A great day out for Year 6.

Solihull Approach

Our Solihull Approach training starts tomorrow morning! This is a great course and we really hope to have good numbers to maximise our resources. You can sign up through the school office or by contacting Mrs Specht. See you there!

Art in Year 5

Year 5 are creating sculptures in the style of Alberto Giacometti. Stage one has been the design stage and the creation of their armatures. We look forward to seeing how they evolve!

Reading Plus

Reading Plus is a Literacy programme that we have introduced this year that supports children to develop their reading fluency and comprehension. Our Year 6 children all have individual log ins and spend at least 90 minutes each week in school reading selected texts that motivate and challenge them.

These Year 6 children have been commended for moving up a level with their Reading Plus. Congratulations!

Kenya Green, Vinnie Lane, Shadrach Mukisa, Kellan Stead, Shelby Brett-McGuirk, Marwa Al-Baloshi, Christopher Aleshinloye-Egbeyemi, Cleo Liddiard, Beaux Finch

Bella Rowbotham, Jack Allen and Hanaa Razzari have also received Reading Champion badges to acknowledge the amount of reading they are completing and enjoying. Well done and keep going Year 6!
