VE Day – 80 year anniversary

What a happy and memorable day we had last Thursday marking the 80th anniversary of VE Day. We dressed up in red, white and blue and enjoyed a special celebration assembly together with poetry and a wonderful song. If you are able to view our Facebook page, it's worth watching the children singing, it was very moving.

We have shared the lyrics of the song over the page.

We will always remember them.

*As we gather to celebrate,
Bittersweet victory from fate,
Now together all should reflect;
Their hope for a better day
I'll remember their sacrifice,
I'll remember the freedom won,
I'll remember and not forget;
Their hope for a better day.*

*I'll remember, like the wind through the trees,
I'll remember, like the stars that I see,
I'll remember, like the haunting blue sea;
Their hope for a better day.*

*I'll remember, as the sun makes its play,
I'll remember, at the close of the day,
I'll remember, for eternity;
Their hope for a better day.*

Year 6 SATs week

Today marks the start of our Year 6 SATs week. We want to express how proud of our Year 6 children and how grateful we are for the way you are managing yourselves this year and the example you are setting around the school. You are true leaders.

We are all here for you this week. We will meet you at 8.30am each morning in the dining room where we can scoop you up, make sure you are fed, watered and in the best possible place to do your very best in your tests.

Year 6 have worked so hard and put so much effort into their learning this year. We wish you all lots of luck, kind papers and bountiful jelly babies. We're with you all the way.
